What the.... this game ?. 10V10 Would kick dogs again. Great game for the money. Nice way to spen some down time relaxing. it so difficult. just like dark souls. I am almost 100% sure they will use my gameplay footage from this game in my future insanity hearing.

Repeat after me: "I will never ever hit a police car or a big bird."

Still, 10V10 and I will keep playing till I hit them both.

oh wow really?!

stop copying others !. You play as Herbert the Purrvert in this Endless Runner. Avoid dogs, birds and police cars while collecting kitty-coins on your way to the realm of 2d waifus.

10 years ago this would have been a free flash game on newgrounds, but does that mean that it's not worth paying for? I think that's up for you to decide. Personally I think it offers what it promises, and the people who find this sort of game appealing will not be dissappointed. The game comes with a ton of achievements, most of them very easy to unlock, but some a lot harder, so it may appeal to achievement hunters and casual players alike.

The biggest gripe I had with this game was the background music, I don't have too many expectations for a game of this style, but the music did actually make me feel nauseous at times so I ended up turning it off.

Best enjoyed while mildly intoxicated. Having a cat nearby to share the experience wouldn't hurt either.. Simple, but fun. I just hope the devs add some new girls because it's a bit short.. Come for the little sisters

Stay for the infinite achievements. addicted to being a naughty meow send help. The game is not with the best gameplay. We have to play for a running cat, which drag a thread of clothes thereby exposing the girl. Along the way, we have to avoid different subjects, be it birds, a dog or a police car. This game can be played for the statistics of the best games, as 99 achievements are given for almost any action.. great game, I don't see why any Montaro fans are complaining. both games have many good qualitys. Meow Go certainly has better graphics and the girls are cute. Montaro had 3 music tracks instead of 1, more costumes, and the ability to steal panties from girls walking by. this game allows more then one way to jump and the controls feel more responsive. as I said a long time ago in my Montaro review it would be great to see a Montaro 2 or a DLC adding more to that game however they never did so I think it is great another game with a similar style has been made.. Like Montaro or Salty Fish Go, Meow Go is a great addition to your lewd endless runner games. Overall I feel like it's the most fair of the others. I... ugh, I do recommend it. Please help.
